

Choose among six fascinating itineraries that reveal the art of making wine in South Tyrol. Dedicated to wine lovers, the tours include a visit to the old winery, where you can explore the basement barrel cellar and the “élevage” cellar where the Sparkling wines are produced using the traditional method. Round off your adventure with a selection of the most representative wines.

Opening times:

from Monday to Sunday, booking required

Duration:

1,5 hours

Nr. of participants:

from 2 to 50

Languages:

Italian, English, German, French, Spanish

Special conditions:

children under age 18 attend free

1 The Elegance of South Tyrolean Sparkling Wines

Kettmeir is renowned for the production of quality Sparkling wines, including Grande Cuvée and the traditional method Brut, Brut Rosé and Pas Dosé. Dedicated cultivation and craftsmanship ensure that the grapes' delicate, elegant, fresh and aromatic qualities are preserved.

 Tastings: 3 Kettmeir sparkling wines

 Price: € 18,00 pp (€ 20,00 for groups of less than 6 people)

2 Travelling Amidst Aromatic Wines

Experience the changing expressions of infamous aroma and flavour achieved in wines produced across diversified vineyards, from the Oltadige hills to the entrance to the Isarco Valley.

 Tastings: 4 Kettmeir wines

 Price: € 15,00 pp (€ 17,00 for groups of less than 6 people)

3 Discover Historical Grape Varieties

Historical grape varieties have found the ideal climate and soil to fully express themselves in the hills between Termeno and Caldaro, among the hamlets around Bolzano. Each variety showcases its favourite combination – understanding its character is the key to revealing the secrets of this area.

 Tastings: 4 Kettmeir wines

 Price: € 13,00 pp (€ 15,00 for groups of less than 6 people)

4 The Superior Character of Selezione Wines

Journey along the breathtaking route that begins in Salorno and finishes at the slopes of the Renon upland. Admire the vineyards arranged between the typical local farmhouses. The grapes from the Reiner and Ebnicher farmsteads represent local excellence.

 Tastings: 5 Kettmeir wines

 Price: € 25,00 pp (€ 30,00 for groups of less than 6 people)

5 Pinot: One Name, Three Distinct Personalities

Some of the many grapes cultivated in South Tyrol share the same “surname” – namely, Pinot in the Bianco, Grigio and Nero varieties. These are wines that offer different sensory profiles distinguished by refined aromatic notes and a harmonious flavour.

 Tastings: 5 Kettmeir wines

 Price: € 20,00 pp (€ 22,00 for groups of less than 6 people)

6 Experiential activity: A Look From Above

At the top of the hills of Caldaro there is the ancient church of Castelvecchio and from that place you can see one of the treasure of South Tyrol's landscape: Lake Caldaro and its precious vineyards. From here begins the fascinating tour to discover the different terroir that characterize South Tyrolean wines.

 Tastings: 5 Kettmeir wines & food pairing

 Price: € 100,00 pp (max 8 people)